

21 Cornhill

Saturday Nov. 25.

Dear Miss Weston,

yours of yesterday is at hand.
The letter for Levy is forwarded, but Mr. Wallcut says that Levy has sent word here that he cannot leave to attend the Fair this year. I wonder Mr. Wallcut sh. not have directly communicated this to you. I hope your note may have the effect of changing his intention. Could J. S. Jacobs possibly fill his place? Jacobs means to be here to help you in some way, he wrote me.

Quincy was in yesterday, & the Liberty Bell being mentioned, gave vent to his horrid remorse (awakened by the sound of the word) at not having written for it. He intimated he should not. I will speak to Garrison & Phillips. - I enclose a communication, just rec'd. from S. J. May, for Lib. Bell.

I have written to H. H. Pritchard of S. Abington for Green, & I've no doubt he will send a good supply.

I decidedly think you had better write a new appeal for Green, & direct to have it kept standing in Liberator till the Fair. In this week's paper nothing appears about green, when ^{or where} it is ~~to~~ to be delivered, &c.

Whatever you mean to have for next week's Liberator must be here by Tuesday morning, as they will anticipate a day on account of Thanksgiving, in getting out the paper.

Never apologise for calling on me for the Fair. It is part of my business, which I am as much bound to do as anything else in the Genl. Agent's line. You don't call on me enough - i.e. you do not give me my share.

I mean to give all the time I can spare from the office, to the Fair till it is through. I am to attend a Convention at Worcester this evg. & tomorrow, & one at North Brookfield the Sat. & Sunday following. After that, I mean to make no engagements to attend meetings, till the Fair is well under way. - From Worcester I go to Leic^r, and upon Tuesday expect to bring my family to the City.

I think you need not be troubled about Mrs. Drake. She is a woman of good sense & knows what she can & cannot do. They are poor, & just now somewhat embarrassed with a debt; but 'tis to a relative who will not annoy them, I presume. She told me she should not do much, ~~for~~ if any thing, for this year's Fair. - I mentioned the Dough nuts in a laughing & complimentary way, & so I think she took it.

I will endeavour to be on about the ladies in Worcester.

Reuben Weston ^{of Reading} told me he would bring a load of green. Have you a list of those who brought it last year?

With sincere regards

Yrs.
S. May Jr

I wish you had given me
instructions as to the notices, &c.
which were to be kept standing in Liberator. If you will do so now, I will attend to it. But whatever you send next week
please send direct to Mr Garrison
as I shall not be in town again
till Tuesday night.
